

English Department KS4

To expand students' knowledge and skills in literature and written expression.
 Using the exams as a gateway to allow students to become stronger independent thinkers, have the ability to express themselves in a fluent manner, written and verbally, and use the texts to explore society and humanity.
 In order to accommodate for both GCSE Literature and GCSE Language as separate qualifications students will sit a weekly lesson on GCSE Language throughout KS4

	AUTUMN TERM	SPRING TERM	SUMMER TERM
Year 10	AQA GCSE Literature: Paper 2: Modern Texts Drama: An Inspector Calls Weekly Language Lesson: 50 minutes Compulsory task 'Reading Burst'. Students read a short extract (fiction and non-fiction) and use and refine their language skills to analyse the extract. Weekly Language Lesson: 50 minutes AQA GCSE Language: Paper 1: Section B Descriptive and narrative writing Paper 1: Section A Q1-4 analysis of a fiction extract	AQA GCSE Literature Paper 1: Shakespeare and 19th Century Novel Shakespeare: Romeo and Juliet Weekly Language Lesson: 50 minutes Compulsory task 'Reading Burst'. Students read a short extract (fiction and non-fiction) and use and refine their language skills to analyse the extract. Weekly Language Lesson: 50 minutes AQA GCSE Language Paper 2: Section B Transactional writing Paper 2: Section A Q1-4 analysis of two non-fiction extracts (one 19th century extract, one 20th/21st extract)	AQA GCSE Literature Paper 2: Modern Texts Poetry: Power and Conflict Cluster Weekly Language Lesson: 50 minutes Compulsory task 'Reading Burst'. Students read a short extract (fiction and non-fiction) and use and refine their language skills to analyse the extract. Weekly Language Lesson: 50 minutes AQA GCSE Language Paper 1: Section A Q1-4 analysis of a fiction extract Paper 1: Section B Descriptive and narrative writing Paper 2: Section A Q1-4 analysis of two non-fiction extracts (one 19th century extract, one 20th/21st extract) Paper 2: Section B Transactional writing

English Department KS4

Impact	Impact	Impact
1: Language Paper 1 exam style questions – Questions 1, 2 and 5 only. Sat in examination conditions and marked using AQA mark scheme and summer grade boundaries (+3%). 2: Literature Paper 2, An Inspector Calls exam style question. Sat in examination conditions and marked using AQA mark scheme and summer grade boundaries (+3%).	3: Language Paper 2 Section B exam style questions – Questions 1, 3, and 5 only. Sat in examination conditions and marked using AQA mark scheme and summer grade boundaries (+3%). 4: Literature Paper 1, Romeo and Juliet exam style question. Sat in examination conditions and marked using AQA mark scheme and summer grade boundaries (+3%).	5: Language Paper 1 Section A exam style question paper. Sat in examination conditions and marked using AQA mark scheme and summer grade boundaries (+3%). 6: Mock Exam Students will sit a full Language Paper 2 in examination conditions and marked using AQA mark scheme and summer grade boundaries (+3%).

English Department KS4

To expand students' knowledge and skills in literature and written expression.
 Using the exams as a gateway to allow students to become stronger independent thinkers, have the ability to express themselves in a fluent manner, written and verbally, and use the texts to explore society and humanity.
 In order to accommodate for both GCSE Literature and GCSE Language as separate qualifications students will sit a weekly lesson on GCSE Language throughout KS4

		AUTUMN TERM	SPRING TERM	SUMMER TERM
Year 11		Paper 1: 19th Century Novel 'Jekyll and Hyde' GCSE English Language Speaking and Listening: Students will write and perform a speech on a topic provided by their class teacher. Compulsory element of the course. Weekly Language Lesson: 50 minutes Compulsory task 'Reading Burst'. Students read a short extract (fiction and non-fiction) and use and refine their language skills to analyse the extract. Weekly Language Lesson: 50 minutes AQA GCSE Language Choice of paper and question at teacher discretion – focus on individual class strengths and weaknesses Paper 1: Section A Q1-4 analysis of a fiction extract Paper 1: Section B Descriptive and narrative writing	AQA GCSE English Literature Poetry Anthology – 'Love and Relationships' Cluster. Students will study 15 prescribed poems from AQA. Weekly Language Lesson: 50 minutes Compulsory task 'Reading Burst'. Students read a short extract (fiction and non-fiction) and use and refine their language skills to analyse the extract. Weekly Language Lesson: 50 minutes AQA GCSE Language Choice of paper and question at teacher discretion – focus on individual class strengths and weaknesses Paper 1: Section A Q1-4 analysis of a fiction extract Paper 1: Section B Descriptive and narrative writing Paper 2: Section A	Before Summer Exams: Department Revision Schedule: Lessons planned by teachers and shared in department Lesson cover all aspects of the literature texts – characters, themes, quotes, exam practice. Weekly Language Lesson: 50 minutes Compulsory task 'Reading Burst'. Students read a short extract (fiction and non-fiction) and use and refine their language skills to analyse the extract. Weekly Language Lesson: 50 minutes AQA GCSE Language Choice of paper and question at teacher discretion – focus on individual class strengths and weaknesses Paper 1: Section A Q1-4 analysis of a fiction extract Paper 1: Section B

English Department KS4

	Paper 2: Section A Q1-4 analysis of two non-fiction extracts (one 19th century extract, one 20th/21st extract) Paper 2: Section B Transactional writing	Q1-4 analysis of two non-fiction extracts (one 19th century extract, one 20th/21st extract) Paper 2: Section B Transactional writing	Descriptive and narrative writing Paper 2: Section A Q1-4 analysis of two non-fiction extracts (one 19th century extract, one 20th/21st extract) Paper 2: Section B Transactional writing
	1: Literature Paper 2, Power and Conflict Poetry exam style question. Sat in examination conditions and marked using AQA mark scheme and summer grade boundaries (+3%). GCSE English Language Spoken Endorsement: compulsory element. Students will perform their written speeches to their class and class teacher and be awarded a grade: Pass, Merit or Distinction. 2: Mock Exams Students sit two exam papers: Language Paper 1 and 2 in full. Sat in examination conditions and marked using AQA mark scheme and summer grade boundaries (+3%).	3: Literature Paper 2, in entirety. Sat in examination conditions (full time 2 hours 45 minutes) and marked using AQA mark scheme and summer grade boundaries (+3%). 4: Mock Exams Students sit three exam papers in full: Language Paper 1 and 2, Literature Paper 1. Sat in examination conditions and marked using AQA mark scheme and summer grade boundaries (+3%).	Summer Examinations